

We Believe in Moms and Dads, Aunties, Grandfathers, Foster Parents, Teachers, Friends...

Our community is where life takes place, and lasting lessons come from the people all around us—all our relations.

We believe in community, and our community's commitment to justice and equality is the foundation of our society.

Gay Marriage—if you don't believe in it, don't have one!

To learn more, open your mind.